Company & A Glass of Wine

SPARKLING WHITE

By The Glass

125 ml

2018	Wiston, Blanc de Noirs English Sparkling, Sussex, England British grapes of Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier are grown on pure chalky soils, giving the wine an undeniable freshness. Here, Pip and Harry ferment the wine in used oak barrels and then age it on the lees for five years, which softens the mousse and adds depth and complexity. Bright & Elegant.	25
NV	Clément Perseval, "Premier Cru", Blanc de Blancs, Extra-Brut, Champagne, France Hailing from Chamery in the Montagne de Reims, this winemaker took over his family estate in 2010 after training under the legendary Anselme Selosse. Each of his plots are vinified seperately, giving him the opportunity to showcase the complexity and the purity of the terroir. Exciting Talent.	35
2011	Gramona, "Celler Batlle", Extra-Brut, Penedes, Spain Named in honor of the now iconic Corpinnat estate, Celler Batlle can trace its roots back to 1850, when Joseph Batlle supplied grapes to Champagne during the phylloxera crisis. The wine is aged on the lees for up to 10 years, yielding hazelnuts, almonds,toast and brioche. Enduring Heritage.	50
2023	Roses de Jeanne, "Val Vilaine" Blanc de Noirs, Brut, Champagne, France Born into a winemaker's family, Cedric Bouchard's passion for the specific nuances of terroirs and their grape varitiy's potential came about when he worked as a caviste in Paris in the late 90's. Located in the village of Polisy, Val Vilaine is a pure expression of Pinot Noir without any dosage to shawcase the beauty of its nature. Creamy & Rich.	55
2018	Bollinger, "La Grande Année", Extra-Brut, Champagne, France Crafted from an exceptional vintage, this blend of 11 crus offers an exceptionally harmonious profile. Barrel fermentation and ageing under natural cork, guided by the dominant Pinot Noir, give La Grande Année its distinctive, generous character. Haute Couture.	69
MV	Krug Grande Cuvée "174", Brut, Champagne, France Rooted in heritage and driven by perfection, this prestigious wine embodies precision and quality. Cellarmaster Julie Cavil's mastery inspires awe, so much so that composer Ryuichi Sakamoto created symphonies in tribute to this iconic Champagne maison. Enduring Power!	75
NV	Jacques Selosse, "Initial", Brut, Champagne, France At the forefront of the grower Champagne movement, Selosse crafts some of the world's most sought-after wines. Initial is a must for true Champagne lovers. Based on the 2018 harvest, an iconic year when Anselme passed his legacy to his son Guillaume. Timeless & Sophisticated.	110
2015	Salon, "S", Brut, Champagne, France Grown on a 1-hectare parcel nestled in the deep chalk soils of Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, the 2015 vintage was marked by a warm, early ripening season. This unique climate produced a dense and powerful Blanc de Blancs. Magnificent, Hypnotic.	300

SPARKLING ROSÉ

By The Glass

		125 ml
NV	Bruno Paillard, Rosé Premiere Cuvée, Extra-Brut, Champagne, France Since its creation in 1981, this Champagne house has been acclaimed for its elegance and mastery of blending different terroirs of the region. For five decades after selling his Jaguar to fulfill his dream of founding his Champagne house, Bruno Paillard and his daughter Alice's aim is to ensure the consistent guarantee of quality in the glass. Silky & Elegant.	33
2014	Rare, Rosé, Brut, Champagne, France Now in its fourth vintage, this rare rosé blends Chardonnay from the Côte des Blancs with Pinot Noir from the Montagne de Reims and Les Riceys. A generous addition of still red wine imparts bold finesse, vibrant structure, and remarkable depth. Spirited & Acclaimed	85
2009	Dom Pérignon, Rosé, Brut, Champagne The 28th edition since 1959, Dom Pérignon Rosé 2009 reflects Vincent Chaperon's vinous, pure stylistic vision. Drawing on his Bordeaux roots and 18 years spent working closely with the estate's reserve Pinot Noir, he has shaped a rosé of distinctive character. Bold & Mighty	160

		100 ml	175 ml
2021	Conterno-Nervi, "Il Rosato", Gattinara, Piedmont, Italy Gattinara's oldest winery produces a sophisticated Nebbiolo-based rosé, crafted from Conterno's top crus, including Molsino and Valfrena—vineyards typically reserved for the production of the estate's finest red wines. Yes. Per Piacere!	12	20
2022	Domaine Tempier, Bandol, Provence, France Nestled in the area of Bandol , Domaine Tempier is one of Provence's best-kept gems, guided by the expertise of blending, which crafts a strutured and rich rosé. Endless Summer...	18	33
2008	Château Musar, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon First-time tasters will remember Château Musar's stellar rosé for its unique blend of rare Lebanese grapes and Cinsault, aged for 9 months in barrel, leaving a lasting impression of elegance and depth. Eccentric, Pedigree.	20	34
2016	R. López de Heredia, "Viña Tondonia", Rioja Gran Reserva, Spain Rioja's poster child, R. López de Heredia, has remained steadfast in its heritage for decades. Its world-acclaimed rosé is highly sought after, with restaurants and private collectors vying for its limited allocations. Meteoric Muse.	45	75

ORANGE

By The Glass Served with Coravin for Optimal Freshness

2020	Akaet, "Volcan de la Corona", Tinajo, Lanzarote, Spain Named for Lanzarote's Timanfaya Volcano, Volcán de la Corona is a skin-macerated Listán Blanco from century-old vines. Crafted by Marta Labanda and Daniel Ramirez, it has been wild-fermented to reveal notes of orange peel and ripe apple.. Naturally Mystic.	14	24
2023	Malgiacca, "Tingolli", Tuscany, Italy Malgiacca's distinctive cru, Tingolli, is made with a complex field blend of Vermentino, Trebbiano, Malvasia, Colombana, Grechetto, and Viognier on the hills of Lucca, expressing floral intensity, ripe citrus, herbs and a savoury mineral character. Textural, complex and beautifully fresh. Distinctive Grace	16	27

SAKE

By The Glass

100 ml

Konishi Shuzo, "Shirayuki, Edo Genroku, Redux", Junmai, Hyogo, Japan 14
Shirayuki, Edo Genroku" is a family's original recipe that hails from a bygone era—the Golden Age. Using a natural yeast starter, a low polishing ratio (88%), and wooden barrel aging, Konishi Shuzo brings to life a mysterious sake. Meditatative Timetraveler.

Isojiman, Junmai Daiginjo, Shizuoka, Japan 32
A pioneer in the Ginjo and Daiginjo category, the legendary Isojiman brewery crafts this sake from AAA-grade Yamada Nishiki rice, polished to 50%. The result is a refined expression with delicate, subtle aromas of nashi pear and lychee. Meticulous, Purist.

Myoshikiku, "The Bitter Sweet Symphony", Kijoshi, Tokushima, Japan 1986 60
Named after The Verve's "Bitter Sweet Symphony," this unique kijoshu is reminiscent of Western liqueurs. Brewed in 1984 and aged until 2016, it stands as one of the most experimental sakes I've ever tasted. Pop & Rock!

Daishichi, "Myouka Rangyoku", Junmai Daiginjo Shizuku Genshu, Hyogo, Japan 75
Takanobu Sato crafts this sake only in exceptional vintages, using the traditional Kimoto method. The process is unique, blending freshly brewed sake with carefully matured expressions to create remarkable depth and complexity. Soul-Purifying.

FRUIT SAKE

By The Glass on the Sweeter Side

Tatenokawa Shuzo, "Kodakara Yuzushu", Yamagata, Japan 22
A fresh and bright style of Yuzu Shu, crafted with a shochu and a selection of only the freshest, top-quality yuzu sourced from Kochi Prefecture for this umai treat. Tangy & Festive.

WHITE WINES

		100 ml	175 ml
2025	Zuccardi, Torrontés, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina Produced by the Zuccardi family, who settled in Mendoza in the 1960s, this wine is a beautiful expression of Torrontés. It offers delicate summer florals and hints of lychee. A splendid example of the bright character that defines Salta's high-altitude vineyards. Aromatic Kick!.		12
2015	Lenkey Pincészet, "Készült", Tokaji, Hungary In 2001, Géza inherited the winery from his father. Despite having no winemaking experience, he boldly stepped into the role and has since crafted the region's best. From the renowned Mád Vineyard, it is a limited pleasure, with only 1,036 bottles produced. Born from Ashes.	12	20
2023	Prophet's Rock, Bendigo, Central Otago, New Zealand Founded in 1999 with a low-intervention philosophy, the estate is now led by winemaker Paul Pujol, formerly of Comte de Vogüé, who brings a refined sensibility to Pinot Gris, expressed through a long, dramatic, spice-laced finish. Top Class!	13	23
2019	Kracher, "K", Burgenland, Austria My latest "wow, what a wine!", Made with Chardonnay, Scheurebe, and Welschriesling, it's affected by noble rot, offering a rich bouquet of tropical fruits. Aged for 4.5 years in barrels, it's vibrant, powerful, and truly unique. Soft Spot.	14	24
2022	Philippe Grisard, "Vice-Versa", Vin des Allobroges", Savoie, France Nadège Grisard passionately revives her love for indigenous Savoyard grape varieties, a passion passed down by her father. Her Verdesse reveals a remarkable wine: aromatic, distinctive, and full of character. Quiet Revolution.	15	25
2023	Marbury, Crouch Valley, Essex, England Celebrating the newest success within the Jackson Family portfolio, led by winemaker Charlie Holland. Chardonnay from one of Wiston's historic vineyards is carefully barrel-aged, resulting in what may be the finest expression of British Chardonnay. Essex Gem.	16	27
2023	Alice Hartmann, "La Chapelle", Moselle Luxembourgeoise, Luxembourg Hartmann's winemaking team has earned praise from critic Andrew Jefford. Koepchen's Chapelle is a top-tier Riesling from Grand Cru sites, while Luxembourgish wines blend Mosel acidity with Alsatian richness. Taste of comfort.	17	30
2014	Hugel, "Grossi Laüe", Alsace, France The 2014 Grossi Laüe was harvested from the Grand Cru Sporen. Hugel's Gewürztraminer shows a modern, expressive style with Damask roses, dewy peach, and a vivid, refreshing finish. An inspiring benchmark in its category... Divine, Dive-In.	18	30

		100 ml	175 ml
2023	Yalumba, "Virgilius", Eden Valley, Australia Produced by Yalumba, Austrlia's oldest family-owned winery, this flagship viognier is sourced from old-vine in Eden Valley. Whole bunch pressed and wild fermented in french oak, it unfolds with lifted ginger spice, apricot showing purity and restraint. Benchmark Beauty.	19	31
2025	Quintodecimo, "Giallo", Greco di Tufo, Italy Coming from the volcanic soils of Tufa in the Campania, Luigi Moio and his wife Laura started this project back in 2001. Before that, Luigi studied oenology in the early 90s in Burgundy to understand the science of wine which has been his main focus ever since. Fresh Salinity,	19	32
2024	Albamar, "Alma de Mar", Rias Baixas, Spain From "El Capitain" Xurxo Alba, the Alma de Mar presents a singular and unique expression of Albarino from one of Spain's more iconic regions. Using 40 year old vines from the O Pereiro estate, Albarino takes on new dimensions of texture, richness and minerality to the core. Silky Resonance.	20	33
2020	Herdade do Portocarro, "Gerónimo", Peninsula de Setúbal, Portugal José da Mota Capitão, widely regarded as one of Portugal's finest winemakers, focuses here on rare and almost extinct indigenous Portuguese varieties: Galego Dourado and Sercial. A pure, terroir-driven expression that brings remarkable salinity and layered complexity. Phenolic Ex-trava-ganza!	20	33
2022	Domaine Francois Carillon, Bourgogne, Burgundy, France Currently in their 16th generation of winemaking,, Mathis Carillon's family are based in Puligny Montrachet, their wines showing pristine fruit and rhythmic acidity. Bourgogne Blanc uses grapes sourced from Puligny-Montrachet, welcoming citrus and orchard fruit. Modern Legends	20	35
2015	Kranz, Kirchberg GG, Pfalz, Germany From the finest sites of Ilbesheim in the heart of the 'Grosse Lage' Kirchberg, Kranz is illustrating a fabulous Riesling with aged, grippy and intense minreality from the limestone soils of this unique vineyard. Shining bright through the ripeness of its fruit, the wine knows how to seduce.with its prime maturity	23	40
2020	Nikolaihof, "Im Weingebirge", Smaragd, Wachau, Austria Nikolaihof's roots reach alomost 2,000 years to Roman times. Owned by the Saahs family since 1894 and among the world's pinoneering biodynamic estates, this Gruner Veltliner spends time on its lees, bringing remarkable depth and a creamy texture. Ancient Soul.	28	49
1996	R de la Grange, "Cuvée d'Exception", Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine, Loire, France Muscadet is often unfairly seen as the humble side of French winemaking. With no artifice, R de La Grange—rooted in a tradition since 1680—releases timeless masterpieces. "Exception", enriched by 28 years of aging, still retains its mouthwatering acidity. Calm Wisdom.	28	49
NV	Ken Forrester, "Dirty Little Secret", Coastal Regions, South-Africa Piekenerskloof's ancient, bush-trained Chenin Blanc vines, planted as far back as 1959, are the foundation of this well-kept secret. This multi-vintage blend places South African wines firmly in the spotlight. National Anthem.	34	58

2022	Château Tirecul La Gravière, "Les Pins", Monbazillac, South-West, France Claudia and Bruno Bilancini fell in love with the beautiful slopes of Tirecul La Gravière, where they began crafting extraordinary sweet wines. Les Pins, their petite cuvée, is a true vin de gourmandise. Thirst Quenching.		10. 5
2015	Reinhartshausen, Erbacher Hohenrain, Spätlese, Rheingau, Germany Historically mentionned in text books as early as the 1500's, this Grosse Lage is one of the best in the center of Erbach. Planted on the perfect slope aspect for the full maturity of the fruit and protected by a wall from the heavy winds of the valley, this late-harvest Riesling will be the best way to finish on a sweet note. Explosive Spark!	10	20
2023	Donnafugata, "Ben Rye", Passito di Pantelleria, Sicily, Italy Nestled on the stunning island of Pantelleria, the 'black diamond' of the Mediterranean, Donnafugata is the undisputed master of Passito. The vines form a golden patchwork across the island, producing a wine that evokes sweet, blossoming apricot marmalade. Zibbibo Therapy!	16	33
2020	Vin de Constance, Klein Constancia, Coastal Regions, South Africa Favorable weather graced Adam Mason's debut vintage, now a landmark in winemaking history. With exotic, exuberant muscat fragrances and maturation in 500L barrels, it reveals a beautifully silky texture. Sense & Sensibility	18	36
2023	Changyu,"Gold Diamond" Icewine, Huanren, Lianiong, China The first vineyards at the foothills of Wunü Mountain, dedicated to ice wine production, showcase Changyu's Vidal (a hybrid grape), with frozen drops that reveal China's untapped potential. Adventure Time.	20	40
1994	Domaine de la Bongran, "Botrytis", Mâcon-Villages, Burgundy, France In the heart of the Haut-Mâconnais lies an exceptional, elusive wine, produced only in the most remarkable vintages. A closely guarded secret, it stands as the most singular cuvée of Domaine de la Bongran, arguably in all of Burgundy. Tropical Delight.	22	44
2021	Kracher, "N.04 Rosenmuskateller Nouvelle Vague", TBA, Burgenland, Austria If you haven't explored Kracher's TBAs, you're missing out — they're pure cult status. Made from 100% botrytised Rosenmuskateller and aged 22 months in new oak, this sweet wine is unforgettable. Intense, exotic, and totally wild. Crazy, baby!	27	48

Part of History

In the heart of the Jura vineyards, where the Savagnin grape is nurtured by marl soils, a tradition endures: the crafting of vin jaune. This ancestral knowledge, mastered over the years, relies on a unique grape variety, optimally ripened grapes, extended aging in oak barrels, and the formation of a natural "veil" that allows for a controlled oxidation, contributing to the renowned "goût de jaune".

The Berthet-Bondet family are passionate defenders of this expertise and of their cherished appellation, Château-Chalon, where they carefully cultivate 4.5 hectares. Established at the estate since 1984, the crafting of this wine has now become a true tradition.

Flashback

Dagueneau was the first "extravagant" bottle of wine I ever bought—a 1996 Silex.

It was ten years ago now, during my sommelier studies in Béziers. There were eight of us, broke students with empty pockets, scraping together what little we had. I remember it like it was yesterday: we sniffed the wine reverently, our eyes filled with stars, our glasses half-full.

Moments like that are etched into memory forever.

ICONIC

The true crowning jewel of the Loire Valley and nagnum opus of the legendary Didier Dagueneau, Astéroide is a wine that very few have the privilege of experiencing. Harvestes from 18 hand ploughed plots of Sauvignon Blanc in Pouilly Fumé, this elusive cuvée is only produced 3 times every decade, with up to 400 bottles being produced each vintage. With a beautiful synergy of purity and power coming from the masterful and meticulous vinification, Asteroide showcases the very best that Sauvginon Blanc has to offer.

Château d'Yquem, "Ygrec d'Yquem"

Hailing from perhaps the most legendary and revered estate in the worl for dessert wines, the Ygrec of Château d'Yquem has remained to be a true hidden jewel in the crown of Sauternes' king showcasing a synergic unison of Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon harvested at the peak of their ripeness. The Ygrec demands the reverance often ill aforded to Bordeaux's white wines.

Clos Joliette

Jurançon conceals a rare gem: the Petit Manseng amphitheater of Clos Joliette. Planted in 1929, it was lovingly cared for by the Migne couple until their last breath. The estate then passed to Michel Renaud and, ultimately, to Lionel Osmin, who has stayed true to the distinctive Joliette style.

Flashback

My first bottle of Grillet was a fairly young vintage, enjoyed while I was cutting my teeth at Le Petit Nice. I tasted it with great care, under the watchful eye of Monsieur Mesnier, my head sommelier. With an inquisitive look, he asked me :

- Well?
- Well...
- You'll understand later.

In hindsight, I can only agree with my first mentor. Château-Grillet is the Sleeping Beauty of the Rhône, awakening from its slumber only when it chooses.

Flashbacks

In front of me, the pre-phylloxera Riesling vines stand as tall as I am, their trunks as wide as me... Walking through the rows of Scharzhofberger vines, Egon's words echo in my mind: "The quality of a wine originates from the vines."

Egon comes back from the cellar with a bottle, its label absent. He opens it carefully, concealing the cork. As he pours the liquid into our glasses, a mischievous smile plays on his lips:
"So, what vintage is it?"
Several answers fly, pointing to the late '90s or early 2000s.
Egon smiles, calmly, and softly replies: "1983."

Time seems to have no hold over Egon's wines. In retrospect, I can't help but think there must be a time glitch in his cellar.

1989	Egon Müller Mosel, Germany	"Scharzhofberger", Spätlese, Mosel Riesling	985

The Alte Reben cuvée comes from the ungrafted parcels at the heart of the Scharzhofberger site, long believed to be resistant to phylloxera thanks to their unique terroir. We now know that this resilience was due largely to the cold temperatures, as some vines have recently begun to show signs of infestation and have had to be replaced. Alte Reben is unique in its fragility, and future generations will likely read about it rather than have the chance to experience its recent vintages firsthand.

Part of History

Dating back to 1789, the winery has been a symbol of tradition and craftsmanship. Today, it is run by Klaus Peter Keller, who took over its management in 2001.

The 2022 vintage was a particularly complex one, with Klaus Peter describing it as follows:

“ You can’t make great wine without some anxiety; you have to be willing to take some risks. After a harvest that stretched over nearly seven weeks, the team was both relieved and proud when, on October 12th, the final box of grapes was brought into the winery”

Rest assured, the ethereal 2022 G Max is poised to endure for eternity.

Hidden amidst the plethora of Grosse Gewachs holdings of Weingut Keller, there emerges an elusive, rare and legendary cuvee, the G-Max. Shrouded in speculation and intrigue, and hailing from an undisclosedparcel of vines, the G-Max is the namesake of Klaus-Peter’s own son, Maximilian, G-Max showcases profound power, poise and fortitude.

A Taste of Home

Listed not out of chauvinism, but simply for the pleasure of sharing, Alice Hartmann opened the doors to their collection of older vintages. It is a glimpse into one of the best terroirs of Luxembourg: La Chapelle on La Koeppchen.

Wou d'Rief laanscht d'Musel dofteg bléit, den Himmel Wäin ons mëcht.

Where the breeze along the moss gently blows, The sky gives us wine.

- Michel Lentz, Ons Hémécht

Part of History

In 2017, following the death of one of the Foucault brothers, ownership of Clos Rougeard underwent a significant change. This shift has undoubtedly sparked considerable debate, yet there remains a broad consensus that it continues to be a cornerstone of Loire's wine aristocracy.

"Les Poyeux" is Clos Rougeard's known for its powerful elegance has an excellent aging potential.
"Les Clos" is made from the estate's oldest vineyard, offering a more refined expression of Cabernet Franc.
Le Bourg" is Clos Rougeard's rarest cuvée, known for its complexity, it ages gracefully for decades.

Each cuvée tells its own story, yet all are written from the same book.

Flashback

During a dinner hosted by Corney & Barrow, I asked Olivier Berrouet about the most unexpected food pairing he had ever tried with a bottle of Petrus. He laughed and replied, "If I'm being honest, in Hong Kong, late at night with a friend, in front of a bowl of spicy soup. I wouldn't recommend it."

The whole table was in stitches and I hoped he was joking—but it turns out, he wasn't.

From this anecdote, I realize there is no perfect moment to open a bottle of wine. Life is a series of fleeting moments, each unique yet bound to repeat in an eternal return.

Part of History

Compared to many other domaines in Burgundy, Domaine Prieuré Roch is undoubtedly one of the youngest, having been founded in 1988 by Henry-Frédéric Roch, the son of Pauline Roch and co-director of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti.

This estate stands out as unconventional, even rebellious, in its approach. It embraces biodynamic practices, vinifies with stems, adopts varied ageing periods tailored to each wine, and resolutely avoids filtration and fining. Managing only a select few vineyards, the domaine focuses exclusively on producing red wines, amplifying its distinct identity.

Bits of Book

I was recently reading Les Millésimes de Bourgogne by Mr. Jacky Rigaux and I found myself immersed in the Conti philosophy and their unwavering work with their terroir and in their cellars.

"If we want the vine to be able to reach these high maturations, without which there is no great wine, we must push ourselves to go further in the direction of an extreme demand for quality at all levels of the work in the vineyard and in the wine." — J-M Duvault Blochet.

The Conti spirit, therefore, is above all: the attention given to the vintage is crucial, but the terroir is so determinant, and the hand of man is decisive.

Part of History

This domaine is renowned for its exceptional consistency. Both the red and white Hermitage are of equal quality, each crafted with the same meticulous attention.

The Cathlin cuvée, a tribute to his close friend Robert Cathelin, remains, to this day, a wine I find indescribable—one of those rare outliers that has the power to transform the way we think about the world of wine.

Chave carries nearly six centuries of responsibility on his shoulders—and, in fact, he truly does.

Part of History

Éloi Dürrbach, a true visionary and free spirit, transformed his terroir by using a bulldozer to break large stone blocks, creating a mosaic of pebbles over the clay-limestone foundation of his iconic Alpilles vineyard. He firmly believed in the potential of blending Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah to craft exceptional Provençal reds, which led him to step away from the Baux-de-Provence appellation. Initially, selling his wine was a significant challenge for him, as he navigated uncharted territory.

Aubert de Villaine discovered the estate, setting off a chain reaction. Kermit Lynch tasted the wine, bought 10 cases, then 100, and introduced it to Robert Parker. Parker, in turn, found a true revelation in the heart of Les Baux de Provence, a newfound passion.

The rest, as they say, is history.

Part of History

My favorite winemaker in the Languedoc, Rémy Pédréno, has been working this 9-hectare estate since 1999 on the historic terroir of Langlade.

Honoring his Spanish roots, he has delved deep into style and heritage, reviving an old tradition: the Reserva. This is a blend of different vintages, much like the renowned Unico Reserva Especial from Vega Sicilia, after which it is affectionately named.

A humble talent.

Flashback

Tuscany—the cypress-lined roads the song of cicadas, burning sun...

It's noon, and we're having lunch at Guado al Tasso. A wine I've never tasted before is presented to us. Curious, I think, what could this wine be? I bring my nose to the glass. It's explosive. Exuberant. The fruit bites at your nose like a dog clinging to a bone. All the generosity of the estate, all the Tuscan warmth, fills the glass. On the palate, it's rich, lush, juicy—each sip a taste of sunshine and dolce vita.

San Walfredo is carpe diem spirit in a bottle. It's my wine!

Wine & Peace

Nestled in the Coastal Mountain range of Latakia, brothers Karim and Sandro Saadé produce what wine expert Jancis Robinson has called "arguably the finest wine of the Eastern Mediterranean." Despite their vineyards being targeted during Syria's civil war, the Saadé brothers remained resolute, continuing to craft exceptional wines amidst adversity.
A £10 donation is made to the World Food Programme for every bottle sold.

Part of History

During the bombings of Beirut in the Lebanese Civil War, rather than taking refuge in a bomb shelter, Gaston chose to open a bottle of Musar '72 and decant it. With each explosion that echoed through the city, he would calmly take a sip of the wine. Some may craft the allure of myth, but Gaston Hochar lived it.

The masterpiece of his life, Château Musar, stands as a symbol of distinction in the world of wine, a name that commands admiration.

Nostalgia

Monte Bello provided a true "lightbulb moment" for me regarding American wines. It began a love story all beginning with a magnum of the 1996 vintage.

On a seemingly unassuming days walk and exploration of the streets of San Francisco, a quick lunch yielded a defining moment in my wine journey 5 years ago. A delightful lunch watching sunkissed scenery and the presentation of an enduring, complex and symphonic Cabernet that left me completely speechless and led to a recent visit of this flagship winery high atop the Santa Cruz mountains with breathtaking views over the San Francisco peninsula.

Steeped in memory, soaked in nostalgia and enveloped in passion, my adoration for this wine knows no bounds.

Malbec & Phylloxera

The epic journey of the noble Malbec grape is truly unparalleled, and the label of Catena Zapata Malbec Argentino beautifully honors its history in France and its flourishing in Argentina. Situated at 3,593 feet of altitude, the vineyard is planted with " The Catena Cuttings," a pre-phylloxera massale selection from the Angelica vineyard. While phylloxera marked the demise of Malbec in the Old World, it also paved the way for its rebirth in the New World.

The 2020 vintage is a stunning expression, with a rich, voluminous flow—one of the standout wines of the year.

Flashback

Around the table, everyone's eyes are fixed on Fred as he brings up the next bottle from the cellar—an Alsatian! A ripple of excitement spreads. I squint at the label: Klevener 1976. I can't contain a gasp of delight, hoping it's a Savagnin Rosé, the holy grail!

The cork, in pristine condition, slides out, and the wine is poured. The nose is breathtaking: layers of geranium and rose, toasted almond, a touch of spice.

My god... Does anyone have a time machine we could borrow?

Flashback

I'm sitting in the BBR tasting rooms for the first Taylor's Port competition, six Ports lined up before me to taste blind. My heart is beating loud. I lift the first glass, take the first sniff... Oh. This is going to be glorious.

A month later, we're in the wine room with David Guimaraens, who speaks with a bright spark in his eyes about the great vintages, vintage Ports that touch your soul and wake your mind. Taylor's Fladgate brings its centuries of Douro Valley mastery to life in a vertical of classic years, each bottle a chapter in a story still being written.

There is a natural harmony between Taylor's Fladgate Port andBritish culture, and at Row on 5 that relationship comes alive. Rich, comforting, and timeless, Port is reimagined in a contemporary British setting crafted for savoring and storytelling. A heritage poured with attitude.
